George & Dragon – History

The present town owes its importance to Edward I's Castle, but before that was built PORTH WGYR (as the town was originally called) ranked as one of the chief ports of Britain. In 1296, the year in which the Castle was completed, Edward I fortified the town and incorporated it by charter under the name of Beaumaris, a name evolved by him from Beau and Marias (Marsh). Near the old Town Hall (now demolished) stood the Stocks, the Ducking Chair and the Pillory. An eighteenth century writer comments on their disappearance: "It's a pleasing proof of improved morality that the constant exhibition in-terrorem of these instruments of civic justice is no longer necessary."

1410

The George & Dragon (site of the original building) was only a Merchants House.

Circa 1500-1540

The present beams within the pub have been dated to this period.

1595

Date mentioned when the present George & Dragon rebuilt (Merchants House).

1610

The date inscribed on one of the beams within the pub,
and when the paintings first appeared (Merchants House).

June 1771

Inn known as the Red Lyon, Beaumaris. The Innkeeper was John Lloyd, also a shopkeeper and it had been part of the Bodelwyddan Estate, Flint, belonging to John Williams Esq.

18th June 1821

John Williams married Grace Lloyd at Beaumaris Parish Church -
The Inn was now known as the George & Dragon.

August 8th 1832

(Wednesday) Duchess of Kent and Princess Victoria stayed at the William Bulkeley Hotel (now Bulkeley Arms) on a tour of Wales. Celebrations held at the George & Dragon, and throughout Beaumaris.

Between 1840 – 1920

The George & Dragon had several different Innkeepers.

23rd September 1950

George & Dragon is listed as a Grade II.

1st May 1968

George & Dragon is purchased by Frederic Robinson Ltd.

1977

An article appears in The Times Newspaper about the old paintings discovered in the roof and the Welsh Office and brewery take steps to preserve the inscriptions.
